

Honorary Board

Mari Amos

Member of UN Subcommittee on Prevention of Torture (SPT), Tallinn

Mari Amos holds an MA in European Union Affairs and MPH in Public Health. Ms. Amos has given numerous trainings and participated in different events related to human rights and torture prevention. She is currently member of the SPT, head of the European Regional Team and part of its Medical Working Group.

Jonas Grimheden

Senior Policy Manager at the EU Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA), Vienna

Jonas Grimheden is specialised in international human rights law with a focus on criminal justice, indicators, and monitoring mechanisms. Since 2009, he is Associate Professor of International Human Rights Law at the Law Faculty, Lund University, Sweden. He is also Senior Policy manager at FRA.

Antonius van Kalmthout

Member of the European Committee for the Prevention of Torture (CPT), Tilburg

Antonius van Kalmthout is a former Professor in Penitentiary Law and Migration Law at Tilburg University and a lawyer. He is also member of the Dutch National Preventive Mechanism and currently member of the CPT.

Michaël Meysman

Academic Assistant at the Institute for International Research on Criminal Policy (IRCP), Ghent

Michaël Meysman is an academic assistant at the IRCP with a main focus on criminal law and European criminal policy. His PhD covers EU judicial cooperation and mutual recognition and has a specific focus on the position of mentally disordered suspects and offenders across Europe.

Steve Peers

Professor of EU Law and Human Rights at the University of Essex

Steve Peers researches many aspects of EU law and human rights law, especially EU criminal law, EU constitutional and administrative law as well as EU immigration and asylum law. He is the author and co-editor of numerous books and articles on these subjects and is currently Professor at Essex University.

